

TAPPED IN

Success Coaching for BIPOC Emerging Leaders

As a coaching client, you will:

- > define success as it connects to you personally, professionally, purposefully and within the "wholeness" of who you are
- > engage strategies to develop and strengthen leadership skills that increase visibility and impact
- > identify skills gaps for future development and determine ways to leverage your existing strengths
- > learn the differences between and how to leverage allyship, mentorship, and sponsorship relationships
- > develop a "tapped in" roadmap for goal-setting and future planning

Who is this 10-week coaching program for?

- > BIPOC individuals who are first-career professionals
- > BIPOC individuals with five years or less professional workforce experience

What to expect:

- > An initial intake session where we review coaching goals & expectations, content flow, and process
- > Bi-weekly, 60-minute coaching sessions that engage content, strategies, and practical tips on "tapping in"
- > Reading materials, prompts, reflective exercises, and assignments in between coaching sessions
